FOOTBALL SPECTACLE

Al Hinz, director of industrial relations for Harvey Aluminum, presented Torrance High and North High football team captains with a total of 50 tickets on behalf of the firm for this year's Shrine football game. This is the third year that Harvey has given the tickets. Happy to accept them are Ken Hall, Torrance High, and Jim Whitley, North High (kicking).—Press Photo

GIRL SCOUTS INSTRUCT BROWNIES

Brownies and Girl Scouts of the Central Torrance Area attended Girl Scout day camp this week at Torrance park. The theme was "Friends Around the World." Unit leaders chose a country and then the girls were taught songs and dances of that country. Shown here are unit leaders teaching the Brownies the art of making grass skirts.—Press Photo.

BLOW THE MAN DOWN, LADDIES

Young Musicians Plenty Hep in The Good Old Summer Time . . .

Just because school is out and summer vacation is here, is no reason why the trumpeter should lose his lip or the clarinetist his touch. Jim Davidson, director of the Torrance Recreation department's instrumental music program, is holding bowing, blowing and drumming sessions at the various parks throughout the summer.

There's room for beginners as well as more advanced students. Torrance Park, Wednesday afternoon at the Civic Auditorium from 1:5 p.m.; El Retiro Park, Thursday afternoon, 1:5 p.m., and Walteria Park, Friday afternoon from 1:5 p.m.

A typical park program consists of one 50-minute rehearsal period for those who have one year of experience or less, followed by another 50-minute period for those who have played more than a year. The rest of the afternoon is spent working with the players by sections and with special combinations of instruments as well as individuals, if time permits.

Musical selections include marches, waltzes, hoe-downs, polkas and popular numbers. Not only will budding instrumentalists practice together, but they will have a chance to display their talents at special "family night" programs and combined "all parks concert" to be held at the Torrance Bandshell August 11.

The park schedule for the instrumental music program is: Sea-Aire Park, Monday afternoon, 1:5; McMaster Park, Tuesday afternoon, 1:5; El Nido Park, Wednesday morning, 9:12; second session will be from July 29 through August 16. A big advantage to those participating is that there will be no more than six to a class. Time for these classes will be from 1:4 p.m. and will extend Monday through Friday. Joan Wooten, girls' P. E. teacher at Torrance High, will be in charge. There will be a fee of $1.50.

To Address Local Church

Dr. Walter L. Penner, regional director of the Southwest area of the National Association of Evangelicals, will be speaking Sunday evening, July 7, at the Foursquare church, corner Arlington and Sepulveda Blvd.

TENNIS LESSONS

Tennis lessons, as part of the summer recreation program sponsored by the Torrance Recreation dept. will be available for those interested persons between the ages 9 and 14.

The lessons will be held at the Torrance High school located at 2200 Carson avenue. Classes will be divided into two sessions. The first session will be from July 8 through 26. The
